HOUSTON INVITATION SERVICE MOVES TO NEW LOCATION WITH EXPANDED STATIONERY OFFERINGS, SAME GREAT SERVICE

HOUSTON, TEXAS – (April 18, 2017) – Houston Invitation Service announced today its recent move to a nearby location that enables the custom stationery studio to better serve its customers. Just minutes from its prior location, the new space provides multiple meeting and on-site production areas. Proudly serving the Houston area for 66 years, this design studio is now located at 902 Willard Street.

"As we've grown and expanded our custom design work, we found we needed more collaborative meeting space and less room for stock inventory," said Kelley Beirne Stephens, owner of Houston Invitation Service. "The opportunity to renovate a 1915 bungalow into an updated yet classic stationery studio is reflective of how we do business. We combine timeless traditions with modern service to provide premier invitations and stationery to generations of Houstonians."

With a long history, Houston Invitation Service has celebrated major milestones with many Houston families—from debutante balls, weddings and baby announcements to memorials and life tributes.

"It's really touching when a woman whose wedding we helped with 30 years ago returns to us for her own daughter's wedding," Stephens said. "For many, Houston Invitation Service is part of the tradition. It's the experience that families often want to share with their own children."

This Houston staple specializes in custom designs with exceptional service to clients wanting more than a traditional retail shop with boxed card sets. "We can provide all the printed items to celebrate life's most important events," Stephens added. "And we love the opportunity to get creative with print mediums for our custom goods. Beyond paper, we can use vinyl, wood and more. We recently chose to hand calligraphy Magnolia leaves for exquisite place cards!"

Houston Invitation Service continues to serve its customers by appointment with some Saturday availability. Clients are encouraged to call Houston Invitation Service at its same phone number 713-522-2757 or patrons may book appointments online at www.InvitationService.com.
